JOB BENCHMARKING

Are You Selecting Candidates Who Match Your Top Performers and Industry Standards?

Job benchmarking turns your top performers and industry data into a proven standard for every hire.

Put real data behind your hiring and development decisions.

Our behavioral and cognitive assessments provide objective insight you can't get from a resume or interview alone. Job benchmarking shows exactly how candidates align to your hiring and development needs.

How?

We assess your top, proven performers within a specific position or job family to build a composite job model. Build one exclusive to your organization, or draw from 200+ industry role-specific job benchmarks.

See exactly how candidates match your best performers.

How Does Job Benchmarking Improve Job Fit?

- Compare candidates to your top performers to see who aligns best with the role
- Highlight development opportunities
- Identify future leaders and those comfortable becoming experts in their current roles

Every Omnia Relationship Includes

- Unlimited access to our team of experts
- New user onboarding and training
- One-on-one profile reviews, role insight and hands-on guidance
